

DCC House Leopardstown Road
Foxrock D18 PK00
Ireland

DCC plc is an Irish business group headquartered in Dublin. This directory profile identifies the listed company through its official corporate website and registered company number, and uses the registered and head-office address published by DCC. The record is written in neutral directory language and focuses on stable company identity, country, website, and corporate location. Contact details are limited to general company endpoints; specialist investor, media, privacy, and personal contacts are excluded. Address provenance is retained with the official company page so the location can be audited independently. Unverified fields remain empty instead of being inferred. The listing is intended for business discovery and comparison and does not reproduce promotional source wording. Logo and trademark handling is assessed separately from the factual company record and does not imply endorsement.
