14000 spare parts from over 50 manufacturers available from stock. Ordered today – delivered tomorrow: for our customers throughout Europe and worldwide Hauer – the elevatorshop is your independent spare parts specialist. Independence has been a central theme for Hauer – the elevatorshop ever since the company was founded. The varied product portfolio that we offer customers via our wide-ranging spare parts search options is based on this conscious business decision. Our elevatorshop stocks lift spare parts from all the major manufacturers, such as Kone, Otis, Schindler and Thyssen, for example as well as many other alternative component manufacturers. Service Professionals. Our motto is: access to your spare part in the shortest time possible. Time is a crucial factor – the faster our customers receive their order, the shorter the elevator down-time. A competitive advantage that truly pays off for you. Worldwide and overnight – we guarantee that Hauer customers receive their orders in the shortest time possible. Rapid delivery and efficient spare part identification are our service promise.

Service and quality of the highest standard as well as uncompromising customer focus are our potential and your advantage. Every day, we set ourselves the challenge of keeping your visitor flows moving with every spare part, no matter how small. No down-time and no waiting – because with Hauer, you are always one step ahead.
